

Employment Opportunity-Selkirk First Nation

Position: Home Support Workers
Salary: $22.39 to $26.87 (Depending on Experience)
Status: 2 Year Term Positions (July 2020)
Closing Date: October 16, 2018

Job Summary

Reporting to the Home & Community Care Coordinator, the Home Support Worker is responsible for providing home support for Elders and Individuals who need assistance for activities of daily living such as light housekeeping, laundry services, cooking light meals, and assisting with other activities.

Education & Experience

- Grade 12 or equivalency combined with Health Care Assistant Program Certification
- knowledge of Northern Tutchone traditions and heritage
- knowledge of the SFN Home and Community Care and Health & Social Program Policies
- general knowledge of the health and social issues specific to First Nations

Management Skills

- organizational and time management skills
- record keeping and reporting skills
- ability to provide services to several clients
- ability to assist in case management and needs assessment
- ability to maintain strict confidentiality

Interpersonal Skills

- excellent interpersonal skills including tact, compassion, and understanding
- ability to work effectively and respectfully with First Nation Elders
- ability to foster trust and acceptance at the community level
- ability to establish effective working relationships with other agencies and professionals in a variety of related disciplines
- excellent communication skills, both oral and written

Technical Skills and Abilities:

- Cooking and cleaning skills

Candidates who do not possess the full required qualifications may be considered for appointment to the position in a Trainee capacity at an adjusted salary.

Conditions of Employment

- Criminal Records Check.
- Willing to work flexible hours and/or overtime, as requested by the supervisor.
- Preference will be given to Selkirk Citizens.
- Class 5 driver's license

For additional information contact
Cindy McGinty, Home & Community Care Coordinator

Please submit resume/application to Reception